

Code of Conduct

Please note that a violation of any of these codes listed below may result in termination.

Also, you may be held legally liable for any damages caused by the violation due to your breach of our Codes of Conduct.

CODES OF CONDUCT:

1. No discussion of compensation with other team members or customers.
2. No drinking of any alcoholic beverages before or during an event.
3. No smoking of any kind before or during an event
4. No cell phone usage during the event. If you must use your cell phone, please step into a bathroom
5. Going missing for more than 20 minutes during an event, (without approval of the client or Captain)
6. Leaving a shift prior to the completion of your hours (without approval of Premium Event Staffing or the client).
7. Being confrontational or aggressive with anyone at the event. This includes; other team members, guests, and clients.
8. Not being in the proper uniform and/or a dirty uniform
9. Breaking or stealing any event supplies and/or items at the event.
10. Being involved in any illegal activity.
11. Calling off an event could lead to immediate termination.
12. Promoting yourself or booking yourself at an event is grounds for termination,

We follow up with clients after each event, so it is our hope to always receive positive remarks. If any of the above areas are listed in the feedback, we will share it with you.

We are excited to have you be part of the contract staff at Premium Event Staffing, and we hope to have a long-lasting relationship with you.